Serendipity Center Adds New Officers to Board of Directors

Portland, OR—February 25, 2016 Serendipity Center has recently added several new members to our board of directors. The Serendipity Board is composed of a number of professionals and retired professionals who have adopted and internalized the mission of Serendipity; a mission of providing the best environment for students to heal and become educated, productive community members. Serendipity is eager to welcome Norm Dull, David Brandon, and Tim Ullom to our board. Each of our new members provides years of experience in their respective fields as well as a unique leadership perspective that is integral to the progression of Serendipity's mission and therapeutic school model.

Norm Dull is a recently retired principal with DOWA-IBI Group Architects. In 2007 he led the team that designed Serendipity's Building for Success renovation and also has a long history of supporting Serendipity. Norm will serve on the Capital Projects Steering Committee.

David Brandon is an attorney with Miller Nash Graham and Dunn, LLP, resolving business and tax issues for both individuals and business entities. David continues the legacy of Miller Nash Graham and Dunn attorney's serving on our board. David will serve on Serendipity's Finance Committee.

Tim Ullom is a recently retired school psychologist and placement coordinator for the Oregon City School District. He partnered with Serendipity for many years to plan and support programming for students referred by his district and has deep knowledge of our therapeutic education model. Tim will serve on Serendipity's Quality Improvement Committee.

Serendipity Executive Director Belinda Marier commented, "For many years Serendipity's Board of Directors have been champions and effective ambassadors for our organization. We welcome our newest members with great enthusiasm and excitement."
