Have a Great Winter Break!

Winter Solstice is the shortest day of the year, and this year, in Portland, Oregon, falls on Friday, December 21, 2018 at 2:23 pm PST

Sunrise is at 7:47am, and sunset is at 4:30pm, making for a day lasting only 8 hours, 42 minutes, and 10 seconds long!

Students "Treated" to Harvest Festival Activities

It sure was a treat to get to spend Halloween celebrating the Harvest Festival, and boogying down at the Halloween dance with all of our Serendipity friends! Students got their faces painted, made popcorn from calico corn, picked pumpkins, and got spooked at the Halloween dance. Students enjoyed getting to wear their costumes during the whole celebration. Thank you to everyone who made the Harvest Festival and Halloween Dance a great success!

Screaming Eagle Hot Sauce Needs a New Label!!!

While the name will stay the same, the label for the "Screaming Eagle" hot sauce will renew every year as the sauce changes, and we need your help! Draw your design on the paper provided by your classroom staff, and then submit to Arianna for consideration by December 13th. Staff will vote to decide the winning label.

Room 108 Displays Random Acts of Kindness

November 27th was "Random Acts of Kindness" Day, and to celebrate, Room 108 wrote uplifting messages on the oranges and bananas served at meals, to inspire staff and students.

Understand By Amy

Under the tree, down the rabbit hole, where secrets lie
No one can see through the veil of life
Doing the things you're most afraid of helps you open doors
Everyone knows a secret no one else knows
Room for learning
Searching for wisdom
Tasting the knowledge on the tip of my tongue
Anyone can judge
No one knows the pain that someone feels
Don't be afraid of learning more
